Chapter 22: Capstone Work II - Drafting & Peer Review

第二十二章：顶点项目工作 II - 起草与同行评审 (Dìngdiǎn xiàngmù gōngzuò II - Qǐcǎo yǔ tóngxíng pīnshěn)

Your Goal for This Chapter 本章目标 (Běn zhāng mùbiāo): To transform your detailed outline into a complete first draft and to use peer feedback to identify strengths and weaknesses before you begin revising.

将你的详细提纲转化为完整的初稿，并在开始修改之前利用同行反馈识别优点和缺点。

Lesson 22.1: From Outline to Draft

第一课：从提纲到草稿 (Cóng tíngāng dào cǎogǎo)

Part 1: The "Vomit Draft" Mentality

“呕吐草稿”心态 (“Ōutù cǎogǎo” xīntài)

Your first draft does not need to be perfect. Its only job is to exist.

你的初稿不需要完美。它唯一的任务就是存在。

A "vomit draft" is a messy, imperfect, but complete version of your paper. You get all your ideas out of your head and onto the page without stopping to edit, perfect sentences, or fix every citation. This frees you to focus on the flow of your argument.

“呕吐草稿”是一个混乱、不完美但完整的论文版本。你将所有想法从脑中倾泻到页面上，而不停下来编辑、完善句子或修改每个引用。这让你能够专注于论证的流畅性。

Rules for the Vomit Draft 呕吐草稿规则:

- Don't Edit 不要编辑: If you can't think of the perfect word, write a placeholder word [BETTER WORD] and keep going. 如果你想不到最完美的词，写一个占位词 [更好的词] 然后继续。
- Don't Stop 不要停止: Don't go back to research mid-sentence. If you need a fact, mark it [FIND STAT] and keep writing. 不要在写句子时回去研究。如果你需要一个事实，标记它 [查找数据] 然后继续写。
- Follow Your Outline 遵循你的提纲: Your detailed outline is your roadmap. Your job is to turn each bullet point into sentences. 你的详细提纲是你的路线图。你的工作是将每个要点变成句子。

Part 2: Starting Your Engine

启动你的引擎 (Qǐdòng nǐ de yǐnqíng)

The blank page can be intimidating. Start with the section you feel most confident writing—it doesn't have to be the introduction. Many writers start with the body paragraphs.

空白页面可能令人生畏。从你最有信心写的部分开始——不一定是引言。许多作者从主体段落开始。

If you get stuck 如果你卡住了:

- Talk it out 说出来: Explain your argument to a friend, pet, or even a rubber duck. Explain why your evidence matters. Then, write down what you just said. 向朋友、宠物甚至橡皮鸭解释你的论证。解释为什么你的证据重要。然后，写下你刚刚说的话。
- Set a timer 设置计时器: Write for 25 minutes without stopping. Take a 5-minute break. Repeat. 不停笔地写25分钟。休息5分钟。重复。
- Skip around 跳着写: If a paragraph isn't working, jump to a different one. You can connect them later. 如果一个段落写不下去，就跳到另一个段落。你可以稍后连接它们。

Lesson 22.2: The Power of Peer Review

第二课：同行评审的力量 (Tóngxíng pīnshěn de lìliàng)

You are too close to your own writing to see its flaws clearly. A peer reviewer acts as a fresh set of eyes, representing your future reader.

你对自己的写作过于熟悉，无法清晰看到其缺陷。同行评审者代表你未来的读者，提供新鲜的视角。

Part 1: How to Be a Helpful Reviewer

如何成为有帮助的评审者 (Rúhé chéngwéi yǒu bāngzhù de pīnshěn zhě)

When reviewing someone else's work, your goal is to be constructive 建设性的, not cruel.

在评审他人的工作时，你的目标是建设性的，而不是残酷的。

The "Feedback Sandwich" 反馈三明治技巧:

1. Compliment 表扬: Start with something you genuinely liked. ("Your thesis is very clear and specific!"). 以你真正喜欢的东西开始。 (“你的论文非常清晰和具体！”)。

2. Critique 批评: Offer specific, actionable suggestions for improvement. ("I got a bit lost in this paragraph. Could you add a topic sentence to make the main point clearer?").
提供具体的、可操作的改进建议。（“我在这个段落有点困惑。你能加一个主题句让要点更清晰吗？”）。
3. Encourage 鼓励: End with positive reinforcement. ("This is a really strong start. With a few tweaks, this argument will be powerful!").
以积极的强化结束。（“这是一个非常强大的开始。稍作调整，这个论证将会非常有力！”）。

Focus on "Higher Order" Concerns First 首先关注“更高层次”的问题:

- Thesis 论文: Is it clear and arguable?
它是否清晰且可论证？
- Structure 结构: Does the organization make sense? Does each paragraph support the thesis?
组织结构是否合理？每个段落是否支持论文？
- Evidence 证据: Is the evidence convincing? Is it integrated smoothly?
证据是否令人信服？是否整合得流畅？
- Clarity 清晰度: Where did you get confused as a reader?
作为读者，你在哪里感到困惑？

Save "Lower Order" Concerns for Later 将“较低层次”的问题留到后面:

- Grammar, spelling, punctuation, and citation format. These are easy to fix later. Don't focus on them in an early draft.
语法、拼写、标点和引用格式。这些以后很容易修复。在初稿中不要专注于这些。

Part 2: How to Receive Feedback

如何接收反馈 (Rúhé jiēshōu fǎnkui)

Receiving criticism is hard, but it is the fastest way to improve.

接受批评很难，但这是提高最快的方法。

- Listen, Don't Defend 倾听，不要辩护: Your job is to understand the reader's confusion, not to argue why they are wrong. If they are confused, a future reader will be too.
你的工作是理解读者的困惑，而不是争论他们为什么错了。如果他们感到困惑，未来的读者也会如此。
- Take Notes 记笔记: Write down all feedback. You don't have to accept every suggestion, but you should consider it.
记下所有反馈。你不必接受每一个建议，但你应该考虑它。
- Ask Clarifying Questions 提出澄清问题: "Can you tell me more about why that part was unclear?" "What did you think the main point of that paragraph was?"
“你能多告诉我一点那部分为什么不清楚吗？” “你认为那段落的要点是什么？”
- Thank Your Reviewer 感谢你的评审者: They spent time and energy trying to help you.
他们花了时间和精力试图帮助你。

Lesson 22.3: Creating a Peer Review Guide

第三课：创建同行评审指南 (Chuàngjiàn tóngxíng pīnshěn zhǐnán)

A structured guide ensures reviewers give you the specific feedback you need.

一个结构化的指南确保评审者给你需要的具体反馈。

Sample Peer Review Form 同行评审表示例

Reviewer's Name 评审者姓名: _____

Author's Name 作者姓名: _____

Instructions: Please read the draft once through. Then, answer the following questions. 说明：请通读草稿一遍。然后，回答以下问题。

1. Thesis and Focus 论文与焦点

- What is the main argument of the paper in your own words?
用你自己的话说明论文的主要论点是什么？
- Is the thesis clear and specific? Is it maintained throughout the paper?
论文是否清晰具体？是否在整个论文中得以保持？

2. Organization and Flow 组织与流畅性

- Is the paper logically organized? Do the ideas flow smoothly from one to the next?
论文组织是否有逻辑？观点是否流畅地从一个过渡到下一个？
- List the main point of each body paragraph: 列出每个主体段落的要点：
 - Para 1: _____
 - Para 2: _____
 - Para 3: _____
- Is there any place where you got lost or confused?
有没有哪里让你感到迷失或困惑？

3. Evidence and Analysis 证据与分析

- Is the evidence (quotes, data, examples) convincing and relevant?
证据（引文、数据、例子）是否令人信服且相关？
- Does the author explain how the evidence supports their point? (Look for analysis, not just summary).
作者是否解释了证据如何支持他们的观点？（寻找分析，而不仅仅是总结）。

4. Biggest Strength 最大优点

What is the single best thing about this draft?

这份草稿最好的一点是什么？

5. One Suggestion for Improvement 一项改进建议

What is the one most important thing the author should work on for the next draft?

作者在下一稿中最应该做的一件最重要的事是什么？

Homework: The Drafting Lab

作业：起草实验室 (Qǐcǎo shíyàn shì)

Task 1: The Writing Sprint

Set a timer for 45 minutes. Using your detailed outline, write non-stop. Do not edit. Do not go back. Just write. The goal is to get as much of your draft onto the page as possible.

设置一个45分钟的计时器。使用你的详细提纲，不停笔地写。不要编辑。不要回头。只管写。目标是尽可能多地将草稿写到纸上。

- What I accomplished 我完成了什么: _____

Task 2: Peer Review Exchange

Swap your vomit draft with a partner. Use the Sample Peer Review Form above to review their work. Provide kind, specific, and helpful feedback.

与伙伴交换你的呕吐草稿。使用上面的同行评审表示例来评审他们的工作。提供友好、具体和有帮助的反馈。

- The most helpful suggestion I received 我收到的最有帮助的建议: _____

Task 3: Revision Plan

Based on the feedback you received and your own re-reading, list the top 3 things you need to fix or improve in your next draft.

根据你收到的反馈和你自己的重读，列出你在下一稿中需要修改或改进的3个首要事项。
